

ERNEST CHIN YANG

A 2020 Part I graduate from the Bartlett School of Architecture, University College London, I am currently in the final year of pursuing my Masters in Architecture Part II at the same institution.

My work straddles the social and the experiential. Comfortable with both analogue and digital methods of production, I never shy away from learning - both new skills, and from others.

I believe in always giving my best, regardless of the challenges that come my way.
